

SHACKELIA'S STORY

Shackelia Jackson refuses to be silenced. Ever since her brother Nakiea was unlawfully killed by the police in Kingston, Jamaica, she has fought for justice, rallying dozens of families who have lost loved ones in similar circumstances. She has suffered a campaign of harassment and faces an unresponsive court system, but will not give up.

TAKE ACTION FOR SHACKELIA

- 1 Write Shackelia a message of solidarity here ▶▶▶▶▶▶
- 2 Sign the letter urging the Jamaican Prime Minister to take action on Shackelia's case
- 3 Moisten, seal and post this leaflet back to Amnesty. We will forward your message to Shackelia and your appeal letter to the Prime Minister of Jamaica.

WRITE FOR RIGHTS

To do more, join our global letter-writing campaign:

amnesty.org.uk/write

AMNESTY
INTERNATIONAL

FOLD CARD WITH AMNESTY FREEPOST ADDRESS ON THE OUTSIDE, MOISTEN, SEAL AND POST

MY MESSAGE TO SHACKELIA

Dear Honourable Andrew Holness,

On 20 January 2014, Nakiea Jackson was shot dead by the police in Kingston. Since then his family has suffered intense intimidation from the police and faced an unresponsive legal system. But Nakiea's sister, Shackelia Jackson, continues her campaign to bring those responsible for the killing to justice.

I urge you to:

- Ensure Shackelia and her family are protected from police harassment.
- Urgently reform the legal system to ensure justice for Shackelia and other relatives of people allegedly unlawfully killed by the police.

Yours sincerely,

NAME _____

COUNTRY _____

'I only want justice. This is not an equal fight but I'm too much of an optimist and will continue in my fight for what is right.'

Shackelia Jackson

Illustration by Rebecca Hendin: rebeccahendin.com

Freepost RSHR-JYYA-UGXC
Shackelia Jackson action
Amnesty International UK
PO Box 36
Sheffield S98 1DB