

Iran: Esmail Abdi

Free teacher trade unionist on hunger strike

Maths teacher Esmail Abdi faces six years in Iran's notorious Evin prison just for defending workers' rights. He's now been on hunger strike since 24 April to protest his awful treatment in prison. He needs your urgent help.

I call on the Iranian authorities to release Esmail Abdi immediately and unconditionally, as he is a prisoner of conscience held solely for his peaceful trade union activities, and ensure, in the meantime, that he has access to a qualified health professional who can provide health care in compliance with medical ethics.

Name	postcode	Signature

The information you give above will be delivered to the named target. Until that time, your data will be stored securely by Amnesty International United Kingdom Section – a company limited by guarantee registered in England & Wales (01735872), and Amnesty International UK Section Charitable Trust - a charity registered in England & Wales (1051681) and in Scotland (SC039534) and a company limited by guarantee registered in England & Wales registered in England & Wales (03139939) We will not use it for any other purposes. We will never sell or swap your personal information with anyone else. To find out more about how we use your information, please read our policy at www.amnesty.org.uk/privacy-notice.

Registered Office: The Human Rights Action Centre, 17-25 New Inn Yard, London EC2A 3EA