

Another Graceless Night

Mairi, Hillhead High School

She knows her place, being just a pretty face.
Wearing the right clothes, saying the right things.
She shouldn't worry about things that are bigger than her,
And take advantage of what society has in mind.
And not what she wants.
She should live like this.

Like this she should live.
How she wants, and not what society has in mind.
And take advantage of things that are bigger than her.
She shouldn't worry about saying the right things,
Wearing the right clothes,
Being just a pretty face.
She knows her place.
