

Amnesty International UK

The consent form overleaf must be completed by the parent/guardian of Words That Burn participants under the age of 18 years to have poems considered for showcase.

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Your child has submitted a poem to Words That Burn, an education project celebrating poetry written and performed by young people who are standing up for human rights.

As your child is under the age of 18, we would like to obtain your written permission before considering their poem, which may include an audio or video performance of their work, for showcase on the Amnesty International UK website.

Words That Burn is a project being run by Amnesty International United Kingdom Section (Registered in England no. 01735872). Further information about the project can be found at www.amnesty.org.uk/wordsthatburn.

Please read this form carefully to make sure you understand it fully before you complete the page overleaf.

Completed consent forms can be returned to creativeeducation@amnesty.org.uk or by freepost to:

Alice Sims
Human Rights Education Unit
Freepost RLUU-XXEY-CTEE
Amnesty International
17-25 New Inn Yard
London EC2A 3EA

Amnesty will process any video, audio or other images in which your child/the child in your care is identifiable in accordance with its Data Protection Policy and Child Protection Policy. For a copy of either policy, please contact sct@amnesty.org.uk.

If you wish to withdraw consent to your image being used in future publications or have any questions, please email the Human Rights Education Unit at: creativeeducation@amnesty.org.uk

Thank you,

Alice Sims
