

FUNDRAISING UPDATE

February 2019

Local Groups have made a great start to the year from a fundraising point of view, sending an incredible £15,000 to Amnesty International UK in January alone. Thank you so much for your support. All the money you send helps enable vital human rights work.

Our Community Fundraising team is on hand to support you with any fundraising plans you might have. Please get in touch using the details at the bottom of the page if you need advice, support or materials for any events you have planned. We'd also like to hear about what support you need from us to make your fundraising efforts as successful as possible. Let us know what we could be doing better!

Updated Bank Account Details

Amnesty International UK is in the process of switching bank accounts to Lloyds and so our bank account details have recently changed. Don't worry if you've used the old details recently, this account will remain open for the foreseeable future, but please do start using the new details from now on. See below for these:

Section Donations

Account Name: Amnesty International UK Section

Sort code: 30-65-41

Account Number: 38862568

Trust Donations

Account name: Amnesty International UK Charitable Trust

Sort code: 30-65-41

Account Number: 38867868

For details on whether or not you should be donating to the Section or the Trust, please see our local group fundraising guidelines.

Fundraising Events

We like to feature fundraising events in these mailings to help inspire other groups who might be struggling for fundraising ideas. If you've recently organised an event that went well and would like it featured in a local group fundraising update email details and a photo to: richard.glynn@amnesty.org.uk.

Local Groups and Fixed Site Fundraisers

We are now contacting local groups by email to let them know when there are fundraisers working in their areas. To make this system work, we need your help! Please let us know how the best person is in your group to contact about planned fundraising activity in your area. Email richard.glynn@amnesty.org.uk with the relevant contact details.
