

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2019

BOGNOR AND CHICHESTER AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL GROUP

are holding an Amnestea/coffee morning to mark the event and to support a courageous Egyptian lawyer, Azza Soliman, who has been punished by the Egyptian government for defending some of the most vulnerable women in Egypt against domestic abuse, rape, FGM, sexual harassment.

Azza Soliman, Egyptian lawyer and human rights defender

As a result of her work, Azza has been punished by the Egyptian government who have accused her of being a threat to national security. She has been banned from travelling, her assets have been frozen and she faces a possible jail term of up to 25 years.

Please come along to the Amnestea/coffee morning on Saturday, 9 March to enjoy tea, coffee, cakes and bakes, and also to sign cards in support of Azza

at : 67 Downview Road, Barnham PO22 0EE

from : 10.30 am - 12.30 pm

RSVP to

Maggie Courtnadge (Host)

01243 552099

or Kath Shakespeare (Group Chair)

01243 552131

or Margaret Robertson (Egypt Campaign)

01243 552113

mn\_robertson@hotmail.com

If you are unable to come along on 9 March, you can still take action to help Azza by clicking on www.amnesty.org.uk/actions/azza-soliman