

A TOAST TO FREEDOM - A celebration of the work of Amnesty International

This event is free

Ian McMillan

The Pantaloons

Clara Freeman-Taylor

Justin Butcher

Raise a glass and join the Welwyn Hatfield & East Herts Amnesty International Group for an evening of music, poetry, drama, readings and reflections as we celebrate Amnesty's 60 years of defending human rights.

We look forward to welcoming you and our guests and contributors including...

Ian McMillan, Poet, BBC Radio 3 'The Verb' / Justin Butcher, Actor, Writer, Author of 'Walking to Jerusalem' / The Pantaloons - Theatre Troupe & musical contributions from Clara Freeman-Taylor, Nigel Hyams, Steve Warner and Brian King

The evening will be hosted by Musical Comedy Duo - Victor & Albert

This event is part of Amnesty International's 'Festival of Social Justice'

Date Saturday 24th April

Time 7.30 pm

Place Online - on Zoom

Tickets

Free tickets are available at Eventbrite
<https://a-toast-to-freedom.eventbrite.co.uk>

Once you have signed up, you'll have access to the event page where details of the Zoom event will be posted before the day.

Bring a glass of something to toast the evening and a candle for a moment of reflection...