

The candle burns not for the sake of all those whom we failed to rescue from prison, who were shot on the way to freedom, who were tortured, who were kidnapped, who "disappeared". That's why the candle is for:
 Peter Stevenson
 founder of Amnesty International
 This stone is placed by the Simon Young of Amnesty International on the 50th anniversary of the adoption of the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 10 December 1948.
 The Declaration of Human Rights was adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 10 December 1948.

The candle burns not for us, but for all those whom we failed to rescue from prison, who were shot on the way to prison, who were tortured, who were kidnapped, who "disappeared". That's what the candle is for.

Peter Benenson
founder of Amnesty International

This stone is placed by the Sutton Group of Amnesty International to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the General Assembly of the United Nations, 10th December 1948.

INAUGURATED BY CLERK MAGGIE WOODLEY, MAYOR OF THE LONDON BOROUGH OF SUTTON,
7th MARCH 1998