

Exiled Writers Ink

Voices in a Strange Land

WORDS FOR THE SILENCED: A Human Rights and Poetry Event

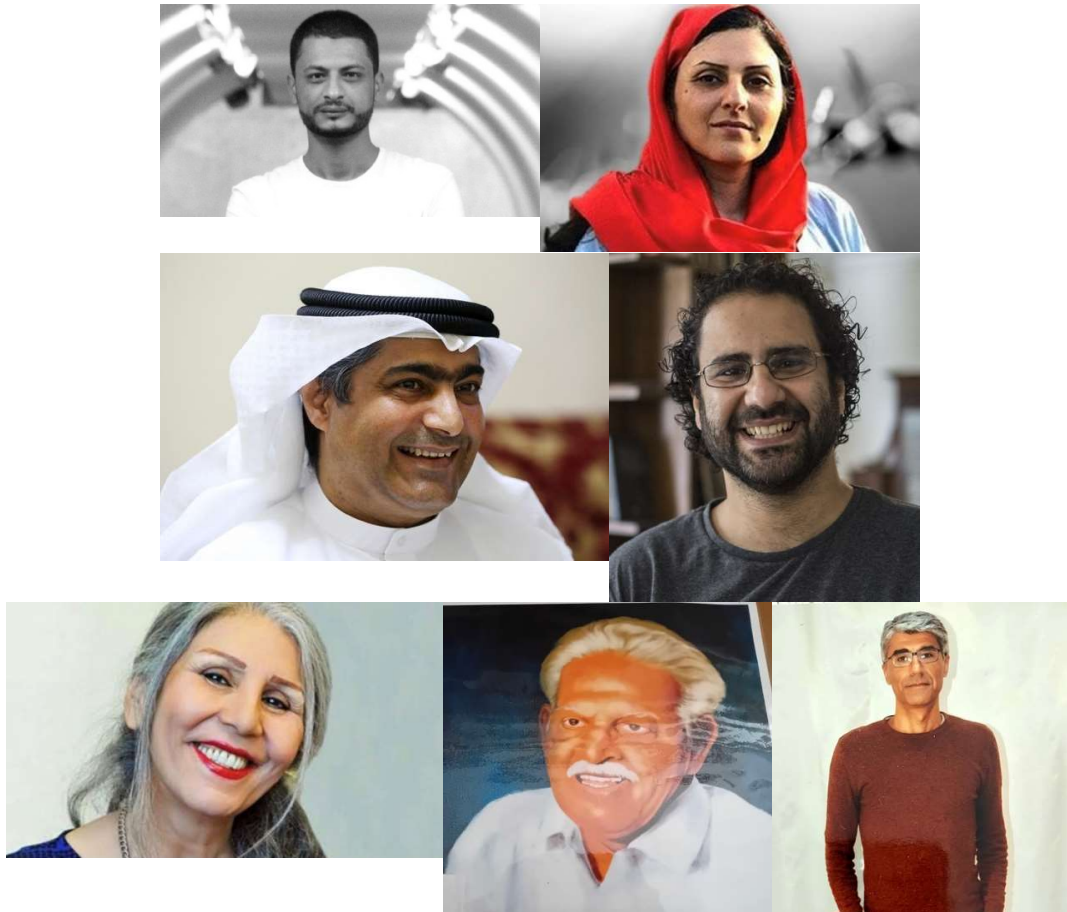

Sharing work from Imprisoned Writers around the World

In collaboration with Amnesty Westminster Bayswater, Amnesty Mayfair Soho and Regent's University Liberal Studies Department

Poets featured include Ahmed Mansoor (UAE), Ilhan Sami Comak (Turkey), Varavara Rao (India) Mahvash Sabet (Iran), Golrokh Iraee (Iran), Galal El-Behairy (Egypt), Alaa Abd El-Fattah (Egypt).

Speakers will include journalist Bill Law and human rights activists Drewery Dyke, Richard Ratcliffe and Nazanin Zaghari Ratcliffe.

Top Row: Galal El-Behairy, Golrokh Iraee; Middle Row: Ahmed Mansoor, Alaa Abd El-Fattah; Bottom Row: Mahvesh Sabet, Varavara Rao, Ilhan Comak,

Come share the work of these important voices, listen to their supporters and human rights defenders talk about their work and take the opportunity to respond with your own words in a collective poem we will write together.

Event details:

Monday 11 of March 2024 6:30-8:30 pm
FREE at the Knapp Gallery, Regent's University

Inner Circle Regent's Park
London NW1 4NS

Nearest tube: Baker Street

www.exiledwriters.co.uk