

WRITE FOR RIGHTS

BANGLADESH Kalpana Chakma

18 YEARS, NO JUSTICE

Kalpana Chakma was the organising secretary of the Hill Women's Federation, which campaigns for the rights of Indigenous peoples in the Chittagong Hill Tracts, Bangladesh.

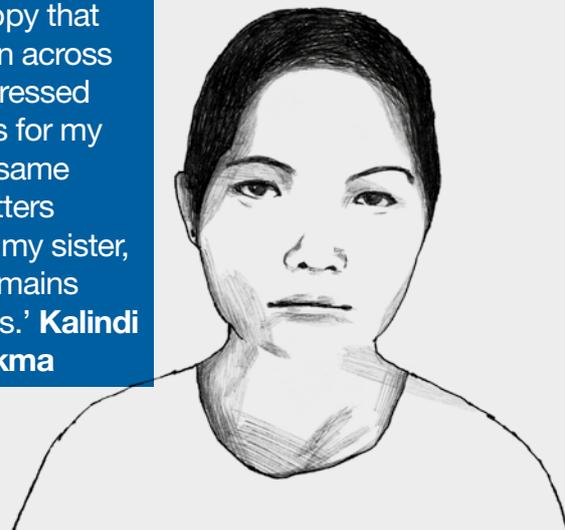

In the early hours of 12 June 1996, she and two of her brothers were abducted from their home by plain-clothed security officers. Her brothers Kalindi and Lal managed to escape and identified their three captors by name. However, the police failed to investigate. Kalpana Chakma, 23 at the time, has never been seen since.

Despite an agreement signed 15 years ago, the Pahari Indigenous peoples are still waiting for the Bangladeshi government to restore traditional lands in the eastern Chittagong Hill Tracts. Tens of thousands are still landless and trapped in violent clashes with Bengali settlers.

In January 2013 a Bangladeshi court demanded a new investigation into the case but the police have yet to submit a report.

Salutation: Dear Home Minister

In your letter:

- Urge the Home Minister to give the Rangamati District police the resources needed to re-investigate Kaplana Chakma's 'disappearance' as demanded by the court order.
- Ask him to protect investigators and witnesses from the risk of reprisals.
- Call on him to ensure a thorough, independent re-investigation of the case, including interrogation of the three main suspects, and to bring the perpetrators to justice.
