

John Pilger

TUESDAY 10 JULY

John Pilger

John Pilger is one of the world's greatest living journalists, and he joins us to share his views on geopolitics today. As a war correspondent, Pilger reported from Vietnam, Cambodia, Egypt, India, Bangladesh and Biafra and his later career has encompassed award-winning television and film work. Among his landmark works are Year Zero: the Silent Death of Cambodia and Death of a Nation: The Timor Conspiracy. His later film War on Democracy, focusing on Latin America, won Best Documentary at the One World Media Awards. Don't miss this chance to hear his views on military intervention, the Middle East and the status of 'the West' in the world today.

Queen Elizabeth Hall, 7.30pm
£14 £10