

Amnesty International

RESOURCE SHEET 5

Useful Websites

Find below a selection of websites that you might find useful when researching your newspaper article for the Young Human Rights Reporter award. Age suitability is indicated in brackets.

Information about the Amnesty International Youth Awards: www.amnesty.org.uk/youthawards

Human rights organisations

Amnesty International UK www.amnesty.org.uk/campaigns (14+)

Amnesty International www.amnesty.org (14+)

HR Watch www.hrw.org (14+)

UNICEF www.unicef.org.uk (14+)

Children's Rights in Wales www.children'srightswales.org.uk (14+)

Human rights information for young people

Voices of Youth (UNICEF) www.voicesofyouth.org (14+)

Amnesty Youth Urgent Actions www.amnesty.org.uk/youth (14+)

Scotland's Commissioner for Children and Young People www.sccyp.org.uk/rights/picture (14+)

Northern Ireland Commissioner for Children and Young People www.niccy.org/children-young-people (14+)

News websites

The Guardian www.guardian.co.uk (14+)

BBC www.bbc.co.uk/news (14+)

Channel 4 News www.channel4.com/news (14+)

Pulitzer Centre on Crisis Reporting www.pulitzercenter.org (14+)

Al Jazeera www.aljazeera.com (14+)

News websites for young people

CBBC www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news (7-13)

First News www.firstnews.co.uk (7-14)

The Day www.theday.co.uk (11-18)

Headliners www.headliners.org/storylibrary (8-18)

Economist Educational Foundation www.economistfoundation.org/the-library (14+)

Documentaries

BBC Schools World Service www.bbc.co.uk/worldclass/schools_world_service/ (7-18)

TrueTube www.truetube.co.uk/global (search 'human rights') (11-16)

One World TV www.oneworldgroup.org/tv (14+)

Unreported World www.channel4.com/programmes/unreported-world (14+)