Resolution title [e.g. Climate Change]

Brief description of situation or statement of concern using resolution form

This AGM notes that;

What:

The effects of global warming are accelerating, and are likely to continue to accelerate;

Why:

Concerned that the increasing effects of climate change will have a detrimental impact on some of the most vulnerable populations worldwide;

Conscious that the economic, social and cultural rights of many populations are under increasing pressure because of climate change;]

Operative statements:

This AGM resolves;

What we are going to do about the issue laid out in the description:

That STAN Committee members will travel only by train within the UK when on STAN business, unless no reasonable alternative exists;

That the STAN Committee will facilitate the bringing of a motion to the Amnesty International AGM mandating further action on the economic, social and cultural rights of climate migrants.

Annex B: Procedure for the Debate and Adoption of Resolutions

1. Time limits can be subject to change by the AGM Chair should they consider it necessary for the fair and efficient running of the AGM.

Stage	Time Limit
Stage One: Moving the Motion One person from the Group submitting the motion needs to move the motion. They have the right to make a short speech in support of the resolution, but they can elect to only formally move the motion if they so wish. Any person who wishes to submit an amendment to the resolution should write it down and hand it to the secretary.	Up to 3 mins
Stage Two: A Speech Against The Chair will ask if anyone wishes to speak against the motion. Anybody may speak against the motion. If no-one chooses to speak against the motion the Chair will omit Stage Three and proceed to amendments. Any person who wishes to submit an amendment to the resolution should write it down and hand it to the secretary.	2 mins
Stage Three: Floor Debate Following a speech against, the Chair will open the floor debate. Anyone can speak either for or against the motion. Depending on time constraints, it may be that not everyone who wishes to will get to speak, but the Chair will try to make sure that as many people as possible can participate. Any person who wishes to submit an amendment to the resolution should write it down and hand it to the secretary.	2 mins
Stage Four: Amendments part A During Stages one, two and three participants will have had the opportunity to submit written amendments. These will be debated in the order they were submitted. The proposer of the amendment will have two minutes to present their amendment.	2 mins
Stage Five: Amendments part B The Chair will ask the proposer of the original motion whether they consider the amendment to be 'friendly' or 'unfriendly'. If the amendment is considered 'friendly' then it automatically passes and becomes a part of the motion. The Chair will then begin Stage Four again with another amendment (if any).	2 mins

If the amendment is considered 'unfriendly' then the original proposer will have a two minute right of reply, in which they will speak against the amendment.
Stage Six: Amendments part C The Chair will open the floor to debate on the amendment. Each speaker for or against the amendment will have a maximum of one minute to speak. N.B. This is an opportunity to speak in support or against the amendment, not the resolution.	1 min
Stage Seven: Amendments part D The Chair will then call a vote on the amendment. The vote will be conducted by a show of hands. If a simple majority is achieved in favour of the amendment it passes, and becomes part of the resolution. If not, it fails. If there are any other amendments, the Chair will then begin stages four to seven again with a new amendment.
Stage Three: Floor Debate on Final Motion Following the amendments the Chair will open the floor debate. Anyone can speak either for or against the motion. Depending on time constraints, it may be that not everyone who wishes to will get to speak, but the Chair will try to make sure that as many people as possible can participate.	2 mins
Stage Eight: STAN Committee right to Comment The STAN Committee will then have a right to comment on the entire motion, as amended. The STAN Committee will comment only on the legality of the motion (i.e. is the motion something that the STAN can pass), or to provide the AGM with information.
Stage Nine: Proposer's Right to Reply The Proposer will then have the right to make a final statement in support of the resolution, and to answer any criticisms or questions put during the floor debate.	2 mins
Stage Ten: Vote on the Resolution The Chair will then call a vote on the resolution as a whole. The vote will be by show of hands. A simple majority of those present and voting is required to pass. If a simple majority is not achieved the resolution fails in its entirety.
