

The aim of this classroom aid is to provide children with a clearer picture of how refugees are often threatened in their home country. This should be used for no other purposes other than as a teaching aid for the Time to Flee exercise.

