

Speaking Out for Victims of Torture

Leicester's Amnesty International, Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament and Zimbabwean Association are presenting an evening to promote awareness and solidarity with victims of torture on the International Day for the Victims of Torture, 26th June 2012. Peace activist Maya Evans will be speaking about her experience of taking the government to court over the treatment of Afghan detainees, members of Leicester Zimbabwean Association will be giving testimony of their experience of torture, there will be singing and a moment of reflection for all victims of torture throughout the world. The evening begins at 6:30pm when food prepared by members of the Zimbabwe Association will be served.

Tuesday,
26th June 2012
6:30-9:30pm

Secular Hall,
Humberstone Gate, Leicester.

Maya Evans visiting Afghanistan with Voices for Creative Non-violence.

for further information please contact Penny on 01163 199487 or email
pennywalker@riseup.net

Members of Leicester Zimbabwean Association.