

RESOURCE SHEET 3

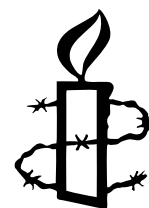

Young Human Rights Photographer Planning Sheet

1. What human rights story do I want to tell?

2. Name the relevant human right.

3. Will the photograph show someone enjoying, being denied or standing up for this human right?

4. Who will feature in my photograph? (Note: It is acceptable to stage your photograph using friends as actors if, for practical reasons, you are unable to take a photograph that shows a real human rights situation.)

Young Human Rights Photographer Planning Sheet

5. When will I get permission from this person/these people to take his/her/their photographs?

(Note: It is essential to get permission – or parental permission for under 14s – of all people who are clearly identifiable in your photograph. See the award guidelines for more details.)

6. When will I take my photograph?

7. What help will I need? (Note: Ensure that you are accompanied with a parent/guardian when taking your photograph if necessary. See the award guidelines for more details.)

8. Background information (Note: You may submit some background information with your photograph – maximum 100 words. This will not be judged as part of the competition, but may help the judges to better understand and appreciate your photograph. Please tell us if your photograph is staged.)
