

AMNESTY TEACHER PROGRAMME

COURSE OVERVIEW

Course aims

The Amnesty Teacher programme will enable you to:

- Gain the knowledge, skills and resources to deliver effective human rights education in your subject.
- Learn how to use methods and tools to tackle controversial issues and teach SMSC.
- Try out new ways to inspire students and build a more open, engaging and respectful learning environment.
- Develop the skills and knowledge to deliver continuing professional development (CPD) by sharing your learning with other teachers.
- Gain access to a network of like-minded teachers and contacts.

Course activities

- Three days of face-to-face training (on Saturdays) delivered by Amnesty staff members and associates from partner organisations.
- Online and telephone tutorials tailored to your needs.
- Support to implement an exciting peer-training project to share your learning with other teachers in your own and surrounding schools.

Resources

- Curriculum-linked educational resources, including films, images, lesson plans, case studies, schemes of work, extracurricular activities and cross-curricular resources.
- Access to experts in human rights education and campaigns.
- Relevant, up-to-date information about human rights across the world.
- Access to new human rights education methodologies that are specifically relevant to UK schools.
- All training hand-outs and resources.
- Telephone and email support.
- Opportunities to work closely with Amnesty once the course has ended.
