

Women's Action Network presents

Women of Hope

Women Action Network (WAN) is pleased to invite you to a moving play which portray the courage and innately hopeful and collective voices of women victims of domestic violence.

Inspired by testimonies of women who have transcended domestic violence, Women of Hope is a pioneering piece of verbatim music theatre that explores these women's incredible journey.

Written and directed by Renu Arora

Music composed by Amal Lad, Richard Norris and Ranu Arora

17 July at 7.30pm

at Amnesty International UK, Human Rights Action Centre, 17-25 New Inn Yard, London EC2A 3EA

Payments at the door:

£10 waged £5 students, seniors, women in refuge and protected accommodation and unemployed

With support of:

Arts Council England, Tower Hamlets Council, ASHA and Latin American Women's Aid and WAN

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

